

Announcing CC27's Single Pattern Contest!

Yep, it is time once again for my favorite part of any Costume Con, the single pattern contest. Woo-hoo!

This year we have two beauties that lend themselves both to innovative reconstructions and creative fabric embellishments – historic or fantasy. Take the pattern and make it into anything you can dream up.

Personally I'm making an evening gown for myself and trying a new dying technique I learned for my husband's – both from the duster and shirt pattern. You can check out my progress on my Live Journal (<http://smart-puppy.livejournal.com/>) or our MySpace page at <http://www.myspace.com/singlepattern>.

Hey novice sewers, this is the perfect opportunity to get your feet wet with constructing a costume! These are easy and forgiving patterns to sew. Aw heck, glue the thing together if you want. We love it all!

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at singlepattern@mindspring.com.

If you would also be so kind to let me know if you plan on entering, it would be greatly appreciated. Thanks!

Now go wild and have fun!!

Cheers, Ann Hamilton
